BRIEF ABSTRACT OF LETTER.

States that a supplement to the Digest of Civil cases was prepared by the Deputy Registrar with the help of a clerk Mr. Sanjeeva rao of the Chief Court and requests that they may be given a remuneration of Rs. 150/- and 100/- respectively.

NOTES AND ORDERS.

Submitted

1) The Chief court have issued a Supplement to the Digest of cases for the years 1917 to 1923. Mr. N.T.Gopalaengar prepared a Digest for the years 1878 to 1917, the first of its kind in Mysore and was given a remuneration of Rs 1800/-

2) Remuneration may be given for the preparation of departmental manuals. But it is not known whether this is in the nature of a Manual. For the issue of a supplement it is not known whether remuneration can be given.

P

3) Again the clerk Sanjeeva Rao, according the Gradation list of the Chief Court is the Reporting Clerk under the direct supervision of the Deputy Registrar, which is one of his official duties. Every year for the Chief Court Reports an annual index is prepared and headings also given for the cases reporte The Supplement is nothing more than the consolidation of the annual indexes and headings of reported cases with some additions wherever the information given is meagre which is readily available to the clerk being himself the reporting clerk.

4) The Department is responsible to keep its publicatio upto date. It is not known how it does not form part o of the official duty of the clerk. Further the remuner ration is for doing the work out of office hours. The Registrar, ~~[illegible]~~ says that it was done out of office hours. No remuneration may perhaps be given for having done work in office hours though it is not his duty, for the time can better be utilised otherwise. Hence i seems that no case has been made out. It is not known whether it was so necessary and urgent that the work should be done out of office hours at least. It might have been done in the annual vacation very well.

5) The points raised above were also raised and discussed in the case of Mr. N.T. Gopalaiengar who prepared the digest and eventually Govt ordered first payment of two months pay to him & on further representation an additional sum of Rs 600 was ordered to be paid.

6) The same considerations that applied to the digest, applies to the Supplement also.

7) The registrar has indicated the source also.

8) The recommendation may, perhaps be sanctioned.

Rec'd No. 6197

As it was already decided that Rs. 600 for the services of Mr. N.T. Gopalaiengar for the preparation of Digest, the recommendation of the Chief Court may perhaps be approved in connection with the remuneration to be paid to the D. R. & Ki Clerk. The sum recommended is reasonable & may also be sanctioned.

To

B. N A G A P P A, Esq., Bar-at-Law,
Secretary to Government,
Local and Legislative Departments.

Sir,

I am directed to invite reference to Government Order No.E.5161-2/ P. & S. 22-12 dated the 23rd February 1923, granting sanction to undertake the printing of the Supplement to the Civil Digest in the Government Press and to state that the work has been completed and 500 copies printed for departmental distribution and sale to the public.

2. I am to observe that cases decided by the Chief Court from 1917 to 1923 were digested and included in the Supplement, the previous Digest compiled by Mr. N. T. Gopaliengar having stopped with 1916 and become out of date. The work was undertaken and completed by the Deputy Registrar with the help of a clerk (Mr. Sanjiva Rao) of the Chief Court. It was mostly done out of office hours. A remuneration of over Rs.1,800/- was paid to Mr. Gopaliengar for the compilation of the previous Digest and the Chief Court considers that the compilers of the present Supplement should be paid some reasonable remuneration, as the compilation of such Digest does not form part of their their regular official duties, and the principle laid down in Government Order No.136-E.A.G. dated the 21st December 1916 in the case of departmental Manuals should mutatis mutandis be applied in the case of Digests also.

3. It is ascertained from the Superintendent, Government Printing that the actual cost of printing the work, inclusive of the cost of paper, amounts to Rs.1066-14-6. The price of each copy is fixed at Rs.3, which is expected to give a return of Rs.1500/-. A sum of nearly Rs.500/- is therefore available for being granted as remuneration to the compilers. Having regard to the difficult nature of the work, I am to recommend that a remuneration of Rs.150/- to the Deputy Registrar and Rs.100/- to clerk Sanjiva Rao may kindly be sanctioned by Government.

4. As regards the source from which this is to be met, I am to suggest its being met from under the reserve fund at the disposal of the Chief Court under "18 Courts of Law--3 District and Civil Courts -- Contingencies".

I have the honour to be,

S i r,

Your most obedient servant,

Thennisa Rogosachari 9/1/25
